RASHTRIYA SANSKRIT SANSTHAN
(DEEMED TO BE UNIVERSITY)
UNDER MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT
GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
Accredited with NAAC with 'A' Grade

The Government of India in pursuance of the recommendations of the Sanskrit Commission (1956-1957), established the Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan on 15th October, 1970 as an autonomous organization for the purpose of implementing the policies and programmes of the Central Government for the development, propagation and promotion of Sanskrit. The Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India declared it as Deemed to be University on 7th May, 2002.

Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan is the largest amongst the Sanskrit Universities in India and it is the only multi campus Sanskrit University.

The National Accreditation and Assessment Council (NAAC) has accredited this deemed to be university with Grade 'A', with institutional CGPA of 3.25.

OBJECTIVES

The objectives for which the Sansthan is established are : to propagate, develop and encourage traditional Sanskrit learning research and in pursuance thereof ;

- i. To undertake, aid, promote, co-ordinate teaching and research in all branches of Sanskrit learning including teachers training and manuscriptology, to bring out inter-linkage with the outcome of modern research in the contextually relevant fields and to bring out publications.
- ii. To establish, take over and administer Campuses in the various parts of the country and to associate with any other institutions with similar objectives.
- iii. To serve as a Central administrative machinery for the management of all the Campuses established or taken over and to provide effective co-ordination in their academic work in order to facilitate the interchangeability and migration of staffs, students and research scholars and national division of work amongst the Vidyapeethas in specialized fields.
- iv. To act as a nodal agency for Government of India to implement their policies and programmes/ various schemes for the development of Sanskrit.
- v. To provide for instruction and training in such branches of learning as it may deem fit.
- vi. To provide for research and for the advancement and dissemination of knowledge.
- vii. To undertake extra-mural studies, extension programmes and field outreach activities to contribute to the development of society.

- viii. To do all such other acts and things as may be necessary or desirable to further the objectives of the institution.
- ix. To promote development of Pali and Prakrit languages.

STRUCTURE

The Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan is governed by the followings :

- * Chancellor [Minister of HRD, Government of India]
- * Board of Management
- * Academic Council
- * Planning and Monitoring Board
- * Finance Committee

The Board of Management is the apex policy making body. The Vice-Chancellor of the Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan is the Chairman of the Board of Management and is the Principal Executive and Academic officer of the Sansthan.

At present, apart from its Head Quarter at Delhi, the Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan, has twelve campuses all over India. At its Head Quarter, the Sansthan has various sections such as Academic, Research & Publication, Correspondence Course and Non-formal Sanskrit Education, Muktaswadhyaya Peetham (Department of Distance Education), Examination, Scheme, Administration and Finance etc.

ACTIVITIES OF THE SANSTHAN

The Sansthan is making constant efforts for fulfilment of its prescribed objectives through the following activities :-

1. TEACHING

The Sansthan conducts teaching of Sanskrit in its constituent campuses from Prak Shastri equivalent to Higher Secondary or Plus 2 to Acharya equivalent to M.A. level on the basis of the syllabi drawn up by the Sansthan. The Sanskrit Institutions which are managed by voluntary organizations and affiliated to the Sansthan also carry out teaching according to the same syllabi.

2. TEACHERS' TRAINING

In the campuses, teachers' training course of two academic years with emphasis on teaching practice, is conducted to award Shiksha Shastri Degree which is equivalent to B.Ed in Sanskrit. Shiksha Acharya (M.Ed.) Course is also provided in the Puri, Bhopal, Jaipur and Jammu campuses.

3. RESEARCH

- (a) Scholars with Post Graduate degree in Sanskrit are registered for Ph. D. on the basis of All India Entrance Test conducted by the Sansthan or NET. On successful completion of research work, they are awarded the degree of Vidyavaridhi which is equivalent to Ph.D.

- (b) The Sansthan undertakes research projects on various aspects of Sanskrit learning and all of its knowledge - systems.
- (c) Sansthan has been especially promoting research on rare manuscripts.
- (d) The Ganga Nath Jha Campus of Allahabad is exclusively founded for carrying out research in selective branches of Shastras.

4. PUBLICATIONS

- (a) The Sansthan also publishes research works and rare Sanskrit manuscripts. So far Sansthan has published more than 371 books.
- (b) Sansthan also brings out a Half yearly research journal named 'Sanskrit Vimarsha'. The Ganga Nath Jha Campus publishes its research journal quarterly. In addition, a literary journal namely 'Ushati' is also published by the same campus.
- (c) Sansthan provides the financial assistance to the tune of 80% for the publication of original works in Sanskrit to individual scholars and institutions.
- (d) It extends the financial support for the publication of out of print and rare Sanskrit texts and books through publishers.
- (e) The Sansthan publishes different series of books from time-to-time. The following series of books of the Sansthan have been initiated so far :-
 - * Rajat Jayanti Granthmala (Silver Jubilee Series)
 - * Swatantra Bharat Swarn Jayanti Granthmala (Golden Jubilee Series)
 - * Sanskrit Varsh Smriti Granthmala
 - * Classical literature and Re-print of rare books
 - * Lokapriya Granthmala/Shastriya Granthmala
 - * Pali/Prakrit Adhyayan Series

5. COLLECTION, PRESERVATION AND DIGITIZATION OF SANSKRIT MANUSCRIPTS

- (a) The Sansthan undertakes collection and preservation of Sanskrit manuscripts. The photocopy of the manuscript can be taken on payment basis also.
- (b) The Ganga Nath Jha Campus Allahabad houses a collection of more than 52,000 rare manuscripts in different Shastras. Campuses at Puri, Guruvayoor, Jammu and Sringeri also have collections of rare manuscripts.
- (c) Catalogues of Manuscripts have been published in twelve volumes.
- (d) Digitization of manuscripts is also under process.

6. TEACHING SANSKRIT THROUGH DISTANCE EDUCATION, CORRESPONDENCE AND NON - FORMAL MODE, TEACHERS' TRAINING AND PRODUCTION OF SELF STUDY MATERIALS.

The following programmes are being conducted presently :-

- i Muktasvadyaya Peetham (Department of Distance Education)
Sansthan has started Prak-Shastri, Shastri and Acharya programmes under Distance mode of education. Certificate courses in Pali, Prakrit and Sanskrit Journalism have also been started. The certificate courses in Computational Linguistics and Natyashatra are also proposed.
- ii Sanskrit Through Correspondence Course
The Sansthan conducts bi-annual Correspondence Course for learning Sanskrit language through Hindi and English medium for general learners of Sanskrit in India and abroad also.
- iv Sanskrit Language Teachers' Training
Sansthan organizes training programme in Sanskrit for language teachers at All India Level.
- v Advanced Teaching of Shastraic Texts
Sansthan organizes teaching programmes for the study of Shastraic texts and special studies.
- vi Preparation of Self Study Materials
The Sansthan prepares printed and electronic study materials for Sanskrit learning programmes and undertakes several efforts for its propagation and popularization.
- vii Diploma Courses
The Sansthan proposes the Diploma Courses in Vastu Shastra, Yoga and Ayurveda from academic session 2016.

7. PROPAGATION OF SANSKRIT EDUCATION THROUGH ELECTRONIC MEDIA

The Sansthan telecasts Sanskrit programmes through Bhasha-Mandakini of Gyan Darshan channel sponsored by IGNOU daily and thrice in a week in D.D. Bharati and D.D. India. In addition to this, Hyper-electronic texts of a number of Sanskrit works are also made available. Details are available in the catalogue of Sansthan which can be obtained on request.

8. DEVELOPMENT OF CURRICULUM FOR TRADITIONAL SANSKRIT TEACHING

The Sansthan develops curricula for teaching of Sanskrit on traditional lines from Prathama to Acharya (Prak-Shastri, Shiksha-Shastri and Acharya for its campuses) and affiliated institutions.

9. EXAMINATION

- (a) The Sansthan conducts the examination and confers certificates/ degrees for all its courses run by its campuses and affiliated institutions.
Gold-medals are awarded to the students who secure first position in the class and their respective Shastras.

- (b) It conducts All India Entrance Examination for admission to Shiksha Shastri, Shiksha Acharya and Vidyavaridhi Courses, known as Combined Shiksha Shastri Entrance Test, Combined Shiksha Acharya Entrance Test and Combined Vidyavaridhi Entrance Test (CVVET).
- (c) It conducts evaluation of thesis and viva-voce and awards Vidyavaridhi (Ph.D.) Degree to the research scholars.

10. ESTABLISHMENT OF CAMPUSES

The Sansthan establishes its own campuses or in deserving cases, takes over Sanskrit Institutions and promotes them as its campuses in the different states for traditional Sanskrit teaching. The Sansthan has twelve campuses at present in addition to the one at Delhi.

11. SCHOLARSHIPS

The Sansthan awards scholarships to meritorious students of Sanskrit related to its campuses and other institutions throughout the country. The Sansthan also awards scholarship on All India basis to Sanskrit students on merit basis every year from Purva Madhyama to Acharya and Vidyavaridhi level on traditional line as well as 9th to Ph.D. level in Modern stream.

12. SCHEMES OF THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT

The Sansthan is implementing various schemes initiated by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India for promotion and propagation of Sanskrit language and literature as follows :

(i) Shastra Chudamani Scheme

Under this scheme eminent retired scholars of Sanskrit are appointed in the campuses of the Sansthan and other Sanskrit institutions for a period of two years (extendable by one more year) to provide in-depth training to young scholars and students in different shastras/disciplines of Sanskrit learning.

(ii) Book Purchase Scheme
